

#111 BLAME IT ON THE UKULELE 4/4 Key of G #111

(Barry Mann and Cynthia Weil)

(Tune: Blame It On The Bossa Nova)

INTRO: G // // // // // // // (stop)

I was at a fling when it caught my ear
That little four string thing with a sound so cle-e-ear
When I played a chord, fireworks appeared
I'd never be the same again, I feared
Blame it on the ukulele with its magic spell
Blame it on the ukulele that we play so well
Oh it all began with just one little chord, but soon it was a sound we all adored
Blame it on the ukulele the sound of love

(Boys) Is it a guitar (Girls) no no, a ukulele
(Boys) Or a mandolin (Girls) no no, a ukulele
(Boys) Maybe it's the sound (Girls) yeah yeah, the ukulele
(All) The sound of love

Now I have many ukes, tenor and concert too
One of every size, won't be enough for you-ou-ou
All my friends play uke and we're never blue
Come join our jam and you can play one too
Come and play the ukulele with its magic spell
Come and play the ukulele makes you feel so well
Oh it all began with just one little chord, but soon it was a sound we all adored
Blame it on the ukulele the sound of love

REPEAT CHORUS
