C G7 C F
 ...grandfather's clock was too large for the shelf
C G7 C
 So it stood ninety years on the floor
G7 C C7 F
 It was taller by half than the old man himself
C G7 C
 But it weighed not a penny weight more
Am F G7
 It was bought on the morn of the day that he was born
C Am G7
 And was always his treasure and pride
C/ G7/ C/ C7/ F/
 But it stopped short never to go again
C G7 C
 When the old man died

CHORUS

C
 Ninety years without slumbering (Stop) tick tock tick tock
C
 His life's seconds numbering (Stop) tick tock tick, but
C/ G7/ C/ C7/ F/
 It stopped short never to go again
C G7 C/ (G7/) (C/)
 When the old man died.

C G7 C F
 At watching its pendulum swing to and fro
C G7 C
 Many hours he had spent as a boy
G7 C C7 F
 As he grew into manhood the clock seemed to know
C G7 C
 For it shared every sorrow and joy
Am F G7
 And it struck twenty- four as he entered in the door
C Am G7
 With his blushing and beautiful bride
C/ G7/ C/ C7/ F/
 But it stopped short never to go again
C G7 C
 When the old man died

REPEAT CHORUS
