C                    Em                    F                    C
 Somewhere over the rainbow way up high
 F                    C                    G                    Am                    F
 And the dreams that you dream of once in a lullaba-↑a-↑aye    ↑a-↓a-↓aye
 C                    Em                    F                    C
 Oh some↓where over the rainbow ↑blue ↓birds ↓fly
 F                    C                    G                    Am                    F
 And the dreams that you dream of, dreams really do come tru-↑u-↑u    ↑u-↓u-↓ue
 C                    G                    Am                    F
 Someday I'll wish upon a star, wake up where the clouds are far behind ↑me-↓e-↓e
 C                    G                    Am                    F
 Where trouble melts like lemon drops, high above the chimney top that's where you'll ↑fi-↓ind ↓me
 C                    Em                    F                    C
 Oh, Some↑where over the rainbow blue birds fly
 F                    C                    G                    Am                    F
 And the dreams that you dare to, oh why, oh why can't I-↑i-↑i    ↑i-↓i-↓i
 C                    Em                    F                    C                    F                    C                    E7                    Am
 Well I see trees of green and red roses too, I'll watch them bloom for me and you
 F                    G                    Am                    F
 And I think to myself, what a wonderful ↑world (234,1234) (1234,1)
 C                    Em                    F                    C                    F                    C
 Well I see skies of blue and I see clouds of white and the brightness of day
 E7                    Am                    F                    G                    C                    F                    C
 I like the dark and I think to myself, what a wonderful ↓world (234) (1234) (1234,123)
 G                    C                    G                    C
 The colours of the rainbow so pretty in the sky are also on the faces of people passing by
 F                    C                    F                    C
 I see friends shaking hands saying, How do you do?
 F                    C                    Dm7                    G
 They're really saying, I (234,12) I love you (234,12)
 C                    Em                    F                    C                    F                    C                    E7                    Am
 I hear babies cry and I watch them grow, they'll learn much more than we'll know
 F                    G                    Am                    F
 And I think to myself, what a wonderful ↓wor-↑or-↑old    ↓wor-↑or-↑old
 C                    G                    Am                    F
 Someday I'll wish upon a star, wake up where the clouds are far behind ↑me-↓e-↓e
 C
 Where trouble melts like lemon drops
 G                    Am                    F
 High above the chimney top that's where you'll ↑fi-↓ind ↓me, oh
 C                    Em                    F                    C
 Some↑where over the rainbow way up high
 F                    C                    G                    Am                    F
 And the dreams that you dare to, why, oh why can't ↓I-↑i-↑i    ↓i-↑i-↑i
